

Support British Softball

Last Updated Thursday, 04 March 2010

BSUK have launched a campaign to help generate funds to support our national softball and baseball teams.

Great Britain Baseball and Softball National Teams have achieved sensational results over the past decade in European and world competitions, despite the fact that none of them now receive any public funding whatsoever - and most of them never did.

More information can be found on the BSUK website.